

City of Alpena

News Release of October 29, 2008

CITY SEEKING VOLUNTEERS TO FILL VACANCIES ON BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

The City of Alpena is seeking qualified volunteers to fill current vacancies on some of the City's many boards and commissions. Volunteers fulfill an important role in City government and get the satisfaction of serving our community. The City of Alpena is always looking for qualified candidates to fill current vacancies. Vacancies now exist on the groups listed below:

The Building Board of Appeals, the Civil Service Board, the Downtown Development Authority, the Harbor Advisory Committee, the Planning Commission, and the Recreation Advisory Board.

CONTACT

Karen Hebert
Clerk/Treasurer/Finance Director
989-354-1800
karenh@alpena.mi.us

For more information on City boards and commissions, or how to be appointed, call the City Clerk's office at (989) 354-1700. Additionally, you can go to www.alpena.mi.us for more information. Click on Boards, Commissions & Committees which is listed below the Municipal Council icon. The application packet can be downloaded from this site.