Supporting Our Officers

In response to the recent string of slain officers throughout the country, Alpena City employees joined together Friday to support their coworkers, as well as all law enforcement agencies, by wearing blue. During a time when so many agencies have suffered losses, it is important to let our “Boys in Blue” know how important they are to our community.

This small gesture of wearing blue was initiated in Wichita Falls, Texas after a local officer was shot and killed. It is an effort to show appreciation for the sacrifices officers make every day. It’s about showing the men and women who serve, that we honor and support them.
