News Release of August 1, 2017

Reappraisal Firm Continues Work in City

The Contractor that is performing the reappraisal of the residential class of properties in the City of Alpena, Berg Assessing and Consulting, plan on starting inspections of houses in the area north of Washington Avenue, southwest of Chisholm Street, and southeast of the Thunder Bay River, on August 2, 2017, weather permitting.

Letters have been mailed to all residential property owners in these areas notifying them of the upcoming inspection. It may take several weeks to complete the inspections in these areas. To ensure fair and accurate assessments throughout the City, property owners are asked to cooperate fully with the inspectors.
