News Release of November 17, 2014

City Christmas Tree Culligan Plaza

This year's City Christmas Tree, which will be located in Downtown Alpena at Culligan Plaza, was donated by the WATZ Radio Station. It is a beautiful Blue Spruce.

The City wishes to extend a sincere thank you to the WATZ Radio Station for their generous donation. Their contribution will help bring beauty and cheer to the City of Alpena this holiday season.

The City of Alpena also wishes to thank all of the individuals who called to donate a tree for this year's Christmas season. Though only one tree was selected, please remember that the City will be looking for another tree next year.
